

(Still) WANTS YOUR FIGURES!

The LEOS logo is widely recognized as a symbol of our society. However, LEOS needs other images for use in publicity. You create beautiful images in your labs and calculations every day. Send us the most eye-catching figures from your work for a chance to gain worldwide visibility. Winning figures will be used in LEOS advertisements, and the winning entrant will receive a complimentary registration to the 2008 LEOS Annual Meeting in Newport Beach, CA this November! Winners will also be invited to write a Newsletter article about the work behind the figure.

Contest Rules:

- entries to be submitted electronically in TIFF, JPEG, or PDF format
- figures must be from actual experiments or calculations that have been published in LEOS journals (PTL, JQE, JSTQE) or conference proceedings (Annual Meeting, CLEO, OFC, Topical Meetings)
- only LEOS members allowed to participate
- include your IEEE membership number
- only one submission per member
- send your entries to LEOS-IDEAS@ieee.org
- contest deadline September 15, 2008
(results will be published in the December issue)
