

IEEE Election Oversight Committee Operations Manual

IEEE
445 Hoes Lane
Piscataway, NJ 08854 USA

Approved by the IEEE Board of Directors
November 2017

IEEE ELECTION OVERSIGHT COMMITTEE OPERATIONS MANUAL

1. Responsibilities

The IEEE Election Oversight Committee (EOC) will assist the President, the Board of Directors, IEEE Staff, candidates in IEEE elections, and IEEE organizational units and volunteers in addressing election matters in the IEEE Annual Election and other IEEE elections.

EOC shall focus on the following areas:

- Election campaign matters addressed in IEEE governing documents;
- Election campaign matters not covered by IEEE governing documents;
- Verifications and presentation of candidate credentials;
- Compliance of candidates and other volunteers with election-related Bylaws, IEEE Policies, customary practices, and Board of Directors resolutions.

In the areas outlined above, the Committee will perform the following tasks:

- Process questions from candidates and others;
- Provide advice, guidance and interpretation of IEEE Bylaws, Policies, and other pertinent regulations (solicited or unsolicited);
- Assist in reviewing and processing complaints and protests;
- Make recommendations to the President, the Board of Directors and other governing bodies and Organizational Units about proposed disposition of queries and complaints about candidates, petitioners and other volunteers;
- Make recommendations to the pertinent bodies on changes in related IEEE governing documents;
- Make recommendations on needs for education and information dissemination;
- Lead education and information dissemination programs regarding elections;
- Engage in collection, analysis and presentation of pertinent data;
- Investigate and develop recommendations to the President and other leaders of organizational units as required by IEEE policies when legal and ethical issues are referred to the Committee, including recommendations to disqualify a candidate;
- Accept and perform other relevant duties, as directed by the President or the Board of Directors.

The Committee will report to the IEEE Board of Directors. Appointment procedures for members, Chair and Vice-Chair shall follow the standard IEEE nominations and appointments process. The Committee will meet as needed.

2. Membership

A. Composition

The Committee shall have no fewer than five members, nor more than seven members including a Chair and Vice Chair. At least three members shall have been previously elected using the IEEE Annual Election ballot system. At least one of the members shall be a current or past member of the IEEE Tellers Committee. At least one of the members must be a current or past member of the IEEE Nominations and Appointments Committee.

Ineligible for Membership:

- individuals who are on the slate of the current or following year's Annual IEEE Election;
- individuals who are petitioners for a position on the slate of the current or following year's IEEE Annual Election;
- individuals currently serving on the IEEE Board of Directors;
- IEEE Directors-Elect.

B. Terms of Appointment

Members may be appointed for three-year staggered terms to ensure continuity.

The Chair and Vice Chair shall be selected from among the Committee members and serve a one-year term with reappointment permissible. Normally the Chair shall have served at least one year as a member of the Committee prior to becoming Chair.

Members may be reappointed for additional terms but after six years of consecutive service must not be on the Committee's roster for at least two years before they may be reappointed.

3. Governing Documents

The IEEE governing resources and documents that are used to guide the Committee's activities are:

- IEEE Governing Documents
<https://www.ieee.org/about/corporate/governance/index.html>
- IEEE Constitution and Bylaws
https://www.ieee.org/documents/ieee\_constitution\_and\_bylaws.pdf
- IEEE Policies
https://www.ieee.org/documents/ieee\_policies.pdf
- IEEE Code of Ethics
<https://www.ieee.org/about/corporate/governance/p7-8.html>

- IEEE Code of Conduct
https://www.ieee.org/about/ieee\_code\_of\_conduct.pdf
- IEEE Electronic Mail Policy (IEEE Email Terms and Conditions)
https://www.ieee.org/membership\_services/membership/products/ieee\_email\_policy.html

Within these documents, the following sections are expected to be of highest relevance to the operation of EOC:

IEEE Constitution

- ARTICLE XII – NOMINATIONS AND ELECTIONS
- ARTICLE XIV – AMENDMENTS

IEEE Bylaws

- I-300. General
- I-305. Functions and Membership of the Committees - Section 3. Election Oversight Committee
- I-307. Nominations and Elections

IEEE Policies

- Section 7.8 - IEEE Code of Ethics
- Section 7.10 - Procedures for Member Conduct Complaints
- Section 9.10 - Parliamentary Rules and Procedures
- Section 9.19 - IEEE Electronic Mail Policies
- Section 9.26 - Civility Policy
- Section 9.27 - IEEE Policy Against Discrimination and Harassment
- Section 9.27 - IEEE Social Media Policy
- Section 13 - Nominations and Elections
- Section 14 - IEEE Mailing Lists and Rosters

4. Implementation of Pertinent Bylaws and Policies

A. Disqualification of Candidates

	Step
1	Referral	The Legal and Compliance Department forwards to EOC information that may lead to disqualifying an individual.

2	EOC Preliminary Review	- EOC decides not to pursue (END OF PROCESS), OR - EOC decides to pursue.
3	Following preliminary review, if EOC decides to pursue, EOC	(1) Advises the vetted person that EOC has received information that may disqualify them from being a candidate; (2) Provides the candidate with the rules and a summary of the charges/allegation; (3) Requests that the candidate affirm her/his desire to continue to be a candidate or be considered to become a candidate; (4) Requests that the candidate provide EOC with any additional commentary or information that may be helpful in its additional deliberations.
4	If EOC decides not to continue pursuit	EOC informs the Legal and Compliance Department. (END OF PROCESS)
5	IF EOC recommends disqualification	EOC informs the appropriate body of its recommendation (IEEE or OU Nominations & Appointments Committees (N&A), the President or OU Chair).
6	Disposition of a recommendation	Appropriate Body accepts or rejects EOC's recommendation (see 7-10)
7	If the President is the 'appropriate body' and is in agreement with EOC's recommendation	The candidate and the Legal and Compliance Department are informed and the President informs the Board of Directors of her/his decision.
8	If the President is the 'appropriate body' and is not in agreement with EOC's recommendation	The President informs the candidate and the Legal and Compliance Department of her/his decision. (END OF PROCESS)
9	If the N&A Committee, OU N&A Committee or OU Chair is the 'appropriate body' and it agrees with the EOC	The N&A Committee, OU N&A Committee or OU Chair informs the candidate and the Legal and Compliance Department of its decision.
10	If the N&A Committee, OU N&A Committee or OU Chair is the 'appropriate body' and it disagrees with the EOC	EOC informs the President or appropriate OU Chair who reviews the EOC recommendation and based on agreement follows steps 7 and 9 as noted above. If the President or appropriate OU Chair disagrees follow step 8 noted above.

B. Sanctions Due to Violations of Campaigning Policies - Candidates (IEEE Annual Election)

	Step
1	Referral	EOC receives information or complaints
2	EOC Preliminary Review	- EOC decides not to pursue, or corresponds with the candidate to remove potential for future violations (END OF PROCESS), OR - EOC decides to pursue.
3	Following preliminary review, if EOC decides to pursue, EOC	(1) Advises the candidate that EOC has received information that may lead to sanctions; (2) Provides the candidate with the rules and a summary of the information EOC received; (3) Requests that the candidate affirm her/his desire to continue to be a candidate or be considered to become a candidate; (4) Requests that the candidate provide EOC with any additional commentary or information that may be helpful in its additional deliberations. (5) Advises the Legal and Compliance Department.
4	If EOC determines there will not be sanctions	EOC informs the candidate, the President and the complainant that no action will be recommended. (END OF PROCESS)
5	IF EOC decides on advisement of sanctions for a violation, as follows:
5A	If EOC recommends censure without public notification INAPPLICABLE FOR PETITIONERS	EOC informs the President with evidence and rationale, as well as proposed language of censure message. President informs the candidate if she/he rejects the recommendation. President informs the candidate and the Board of Directors if she/he accepts the recommendation. President's decision is final.
5B	If EOC recommends censure with public notification INAPPLICABLE FOR PETITIONERS	EOC informs the President with evidence and rationale, as well as proposed language of censure message. If President rejects recommendation she/he informs the candidate. If President accepts recommendation she/he informs the candidate and candidate may request President to reconsider. President's decision is final and Board of Directors is informed.

5C	If EOC recommends disqualification of a CANDIDATE	EOC informs the President with evidence and rationale, as well as proposed language of disqualification message. If President rejects recommendation she/he informs the candidate. If President accepts recommendation she/he informs the candidate and the Board of Directors. The candidate may request an appeal and the matter will be referred to the Board of Directors for review. The decision of the Board of Directors is final and the candidate is informed.
5D	If EOC recommends disqualification of a PETITIONER	EOC informs the President with evidence and rationale, as well as proposed language of disqualification message. President informs the petitioner of decision. The President's decision is final and the Board of Directors is informed.
6	Conclusion	The IEEE Legal and Compliance Department is informed of the status of the matter.

C. Sanctions Due to Violations of Campaigning Policies - Candidates (Elections other than IEEE Annual Election)

For candidates in elections other than the IEEE Annual Election, the Election Oversight Committee shall follow the steps outlined for the previous section - Sanctions Due to Violations of Campaigning Policies - Candidates (IEEE Annual Election) - with the exception that recommendations will be provided to the Chair of the appropriate OU for disposition.

D. Sanctions Due to Violations of Campaigning Policies - Non-Candidates

	Step
1	Referral	EOC will receive information and complaints
2	EOC Preliminary Review	- EOC decides not to pursue, or to have a friendly correspondence with the member to remove potential for future violations (END OF PROCESS), OR

		- EOC decides to pursue.
3	If EOC decides to pursue, EOC	(1) Lets the member know EOC has received information that may lead to sanctions; (2) Provides the member with the rules and a summary of the information EOC has; (3) Requests that the member provide EOC with any additional commentary or information that may be helpful in its additional deliberations. (4) For the purpose of future referral, identifies the Chair of the Organizational Unit for which the election is held; and the body that will be recognized as the executive committee of the pertinent Organizational Unit.
4	If EOC decides not to pursue	EOC informs the member. (END OF PROCESS)
5	IF EOC decides on advisement of a violation	EOC informs the member, with explanation that continued violations may lead to additional sanctions. Copy to the Chair of the Organizational Unit for which the election is held.
6	If EOC recommends censure without public notification	EOC informs the Chair of the Organizational Unit for which the election is held with evidence and rationale, as well as proposed language of censure message. If the Chair rejects the EOC recommendation she/he informs the member. If the Chair accepts the EOC recommendation she/he informs the member and the executive committee of the pertinent Organizational Unit. The Chair's decision is final.
7	If EOC recommends censure with public notification	EOC informs the Chair of the Organizational Unit for which the election is held with evidence and rationale, as well as proposed language of censure message. If the Chair rejects EOC's recommendation she/he informs the member. If the Chair accepts EOC's recommendation she/he informs the member. The member may request the Chair of the Organizational Unit for which the election is held to reconsider. The decision of the Chair of the Organizational Unit for which the election is held is final and the executive committee of the pertinent Organizational Unit is informed.

8	If EOC recommends that the member be removed from some or all IEEE volunteer positions for a period of time (this recommendation may come on top of the sanctions described in earlier parts of this table)	EOC informs the President with evidence and rationale, as well as proposed language of sanction. If the Chair rejects EOC's recommendation she/he informs the member. If the Chair accepts EOC's recommendation, she/he informs the member. The member may request an appeal and the matter will be referred to the Board of Directors for review. The decision of the Board of Directors is final.
9	EOC may refer the violation to the IEEE Ethics and Member Conduct Committee, which may recommend additional sanctions, up to and including expulsion from IEEE (this referral may come on top of the sanctions described in earlier parts of this table).
10	Conclusion	IEEE Legal and Compliance Department is informed of the status of the matter.