IEEE History Committee
Position Description

OVERVIEW:
The IEEE History Committee reports to the IEEE Board of Directors.

It is responsible for promoting the collection, writing, and dissemination of historical information in the fields covered by IEEE technical and professional activities, as well as historical information about the IEEE and its predecessor organizations. It provides assistance to all major Boards, works with institutions of a public nature, and provides information and recommendations to the IEEE Board of Directors when appropriate.

The IEEE History Center has been established to carry out many of the functions of the History Committee, which has primary responsibility for providing direction, guidance, and oversight for the programs of the Center. IEEE’s historical activities are an important part of IEEE’s public visibility technological literacy initiatives as well as of its public mandate as a 501(c) (3) organization.

MEMBERSHIP:
- The History Committee shall consist of not more than 15 members, including chair, appointed by the Board of Directors.
- In view of the special expertise required, non-members of the IEEE shall be eligible for appointment as voting members of this Committee.
- Have at least one member who obtained his or her first collegiate degree within the last fifteen years at the time of appointment and who is at Graduate Student Member, Member grade or higher.
- The Chair shall be an IEEE member.

ELIGIBILITY:
Members:
- IEEE members and non-members are both eligible;
- Participation by professional historians of technology is strongly encouraged.

Chair:
- Must be an IEEE member in good standing;
- Must hold IEEE Graduate Student Member Grade or higher.

TERMS OF OFFICE:
- Member: Two years with reappointment permissible for a second two-year term;
- Chair: One-year term with reappointment permissible for one additional term.

RESPONSIBILITIES OF THE CHAIR:
- Abide by the IEEE Code of Conduct and IEEE Code of Ethics;
- Serve as the Liaison to the IEEE Foundation Board of Directors, which funds the activities of the History Center through a Memorandum of Understanding between IEEE and the IEEE Foundation;
