Society/Council Professional Development Award

A. Frequency

This award is offered annually.

B. Description

The Society/Council Professional Development Award was established in 2003 by the IEEE EAB and recognizes an IEEE Society or Council for major contributions to the professional development of its members through the provision of outstanding products, services and support in the areas of lifelong learning, continuing education, and professional development.

The award consists of a plaque.

The nominator of this award is required to be a member of the IEEE.

C. References

The nominator is responsible for providing a minimum of three, and a maximum of five, persons to serve as references for this award. At least two references for this award must be IEEE members, and may be members of IEEE Societies or Councils other than the Society or Council nominated.
